Power Group

The #GlobalActor Power Group is a unique group coaching program designed specifically for actors who are ready to dream big, take action, and book the work they've always desired. As your coach, it is my intention to help you fill your toolbox with fresh marketing materials, build upon your existing industry relationships, and create more opportunities so you can get in more rooms, confidently book the work you deserve, and pay all of your bills from your art.

Here's what the Power Group includes:

Bi-Weekly Coaching Sessions

We will meet via Zoom (think of it as Skype on steroids) for a group meeting session ten times over the course of five months. During each session, you will have 30 minutes of deep-dive coaching with me where we'll brainstorm, strategize and plan clear actions for your performance career.

"While I booked a credit within two weeks of working with Elise, the most exciting achievement is that now, everything feels like a win because the process is more fun and rewarding than it's ever been."
- Lauren Buglioli, Power Group actor (The Producers, Gnit, Cabaret)

“Elise is spectacular at helping you set a specific action plan to get results, whether that's trying to get new representation or forming other industry relationships. But she's also great at getting you into the right mindset, as a human being, to be able to take those steps with joy and fearlessness. It's a complete approach, and it really works.”

- Ellen Adair, Power Group actor (Homeland, The Slap, Billions)

FaceBook Office Hours

We'll meet in a private Facebook group once a month for office hours. It will be an opportunity for Q+A and feedback on your marketing materials, self-tape auditions, and more. The FaceBook group is also a great place to share resources, support fellow actors and find an accountability partner for check-ins between our group meetings.
